Just thereafter,

The four applicants present with their Ld. Counsel. Shri Praveen Yadav Adv. for management also present he informs that Ld. Adv. Shri Vijay Tripathi is conducting this case.

I have gone through the record; according to the applicants they are entitled to wages Rs. 5494/- per month as last drawn under order of Hon'ble High Court of M.P. U/s 17(B) of the I.D. Act were as the management has taken a case that they were getting Rs. 190 per month as last drawn wage hence both the parties are required to substantiate their claim and counter claim regarding last drawn wages by affidavits and other documentary evidence.

One more point has been stated in Para 8 of the objection by management <sup>where</sup> ~~were~~ in according to management, applicant Bhagwan Das filed an affidavit that he was working in canteen after termination and was getting Rs. 1,000/- per month hence, he is not entitled to relief sought, as is the case of management. Applicant Bhagwan Das is required to answer the point how he is entitled to last drawn wages when he was employed?

Put on the date fixed for hearing/ Argument. ★
