BEFORE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL CUM LABOUR
COURT, No. 1 DELHI

D-1/42/2023

M/s Ujjawal Enterprises vs. RPFC, Delhi North.

Present: Sh. Rajiv Arora, Ld. Counsel for the Appellant.
Ms. Santwana Aggarwal, Ld. Counsel for the respondent.

Order dated- 25.08.2025

1. Counsel for the appellant has pressed an application under rule 5, read with rules 20 and 21 of the Tribunal Procedure Rules, 1997 for restoration of the appeal which was dismissed for non-prosecution.
2. He submitted that Sh. Sanjay Gandhi, the proprietor of the Appellant Establishment had lost her sister and was performing her last rites/rituals at Haridwar on 17th and 18th of July, 2025, therefore, he could not appear and attend the hearing before this Tribunal on 18.07.2025. He has received the intimation from the bank on 2nd August, 2025, when Mr. Gandhi had sent someone to withdraw some cash and he was informed by the bank that it had received a notice/order dated 31.07.2025 from the Recovery Officer, Delhi (North), consequent thereto, account of the appellant was freezed. He had made prayer that his appeal be restored. An order of status-quo-ante be passed.
3. Respondent counsel is present and opposed the application stating that the counsel Sh. Rajiv Arora himself has made the statement before this Tribunal that he has not been in touch with his client for the last one year and believing that, this Tribunal had issued the notice through mail to the appellant for appearance on 18.07.2025. On 18.07.2025, appeal was dismissed. Therefore, respondent counsel submitted that appellant deserves no leniency and made prayer that application for restoration of appeal be dismissed with cost.

4. I have heard the argument at par and perused the record. The conduct of the appellant is not up to mark, yet, considering the fact that restoration of application has been filed within limitation, application for restoration of appeal stands allowed subject to the cost of Rs. 10,000/-. Out of which Rs. 5,000/- shall be paid to the respondent counsel and remaining Rs. 5,000/- be paid to the account of Registrar of CGIT-II bearing account no. 00000037153859985, SBI Jagatpuri (IFS-SBIN0018662).
5. The account which has been freezed by the department is directed to be de-freezed within three days of receiving of the order. Put up for argument on the stay application on 01.10.2025. Till then, interim order be continued.
