

BEFORE THE HON'BLE PRESIDING OFFICER, CENTRAL GOVERNMENT
INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL CUM LABOUR COURT, DELHI; ROOM NO 208, ROUSE
AVENUE DISTRICT COURT COMPLEX, NEW DELHI-110002.

APPEAL NO. D-1/38/2020

M/s. Dentsu One Pvt. Ltd.

Appellant

Through:- Shri S.P. Arora & Shri Rajiv Arora, Ld. Counsel for the Appellant

Vs.

RPFC Delhi(South)

Respondent

Through;- Shri Rajesh Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the Respondent.

ORDER DATED 04.01.2021

Matter was taken up today in presence of counsel for both the parties. A petition dated 01.01.2021 has been filed by the appellant praying for hearing and disposal of the appeal in view of the order dated 24.12.2020 passed by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in WPC No 11008/2020. During course of hearing the learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the respondent since did not file its reply to the appeal within the stipulated period of 30 days, the right for the same may be closed. If for any reason this tribunal feels it proper to allow time for the purpose a final opportunity may be allowed. Shri Rajesh Kumar appearing for the respondent in his reply submitted that the reply was not filed as the appellant had not complied the direction of the Tribunal and the matter was pending before the Hon'ble High Court. However, he submitted that 3 weeks time may be allowed from today for filing the reply as the last opportunity along with serving a copy to the Appellant. Three weeks time from today is thus allowed from today for the purpose.

The learned counsel for the appellant expressed apprehension that the LCR of the appeal now in the office of the Tribunal, if would be returned to the department, the chances of tampering can not be ruled out. Shri Rajesh Kumar submitted that he would take instruction from the department if LCR would be required for preparation of the reply. He is directed to inform the Tribunal in this regard within two days; hence, if there arises a need for return of the LCR, it is directed that the LCR shall be page marked by the registry and each page shall be affixed with the seal of the Registrar with his initial to ensure prevention of tampering. List the matter on 27-January-2021 for filing of reply by the respondent.

Sd/-
Presiding Officer