Sh. B.B. Pradhan, Ld. Counsel & Sh. Avnish Meena, A/R
for the Respondent.

Order Dated-09.12.2025

At the outset appellant has stated that issuance of notice is itself defective because it has been issued under the signatures of and Enforcement Officer while in Para-3 it was Rakesh Kumar Saxena, APFC who has been authorised to make enquiry and determine the amount due from the appellant.

Record perused. It appears that the order u/s 7A was passed for the period July'15 to Mar'17 assessing the dues of Rs.6,69,133/- in regard to the difference of the dues. However, order is silent whether difference has been in regard to the number of employees whose PF has not been deposited or the basic wages have been bifurcated in such a way by the appellant to reduce its PF liabilities.

Respondent submits that he will file detailed chart regarding above said facts. Put up for 09.01.2026. Trial court record is returned to the respondent along with direction to produce the same on the next date of hearing. A copy of this order be placed in both the files.
