ORDER SHEET

CENTRAL GOVT.INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL CUM LABOUR COURT, JABALPUR(MP)

CASE NO. CGIT/LC/EPFA/49/2022

M/S Vipanan Sahkari Sansthan V/S

RPFC, Gwalior

Matter taken up. Shri Pranay Chaubey, Counsel for the Appellant. Shri J.K.Pillai, counsel for the respondent. Perused the report of the Registry. The impugned order is of 31.08.2022. The Appeal has been field on 39.09.2022 which is within limitation. Hence admitted for hearing. The learned counsel for appellant presses his I.A. Heard both the sides and perused the record. Learned counsel has opposed the impugned order on merits on various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his right to agitate against the order. Learned counsel for respondent has submitted that the Act is a beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appellant from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter List the case for arguments on	Date of order of proceeding	Order or proceeding with signature of Presiding Officer	Signature of parties or pleaders where necessary
Shri Pranay Chaubey, Counsel for the Appellant. Shri J.K.Pillai, counsel for the respondent. Perused the report of the Registry. The impugned order is of 31.08.2022. The Appeal has been field on 39.09.2022 which is within limitation. Hence admitted for hearing. The learned counsel for appellant presses his I.A. Heard both the sides and perused the record. Learned counsel has opposed the impugned order on merits on various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his right to agitate against the order. Learned counsel for respondent has submitted that the Act is a beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appellant from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter	03-10-2022	Matter taken up.	110000011
The learned counsel for appellant presses his I.A. Heard both the sides and perused the record. Learned counsel has opposed the impugned order on merits on various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his right to agitate against the order. Learned counsel for respondent has submitted that the Act is a beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appellant from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		Shri Pranay Chaubey, Counsel for the Appellant. Shri J.K.Pillai,
Learned counsel has opposed the impugned order on merits on various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his right to agitate against the order. Learned counsel for respondent has submitted that the Act is a beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appellant from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		The impugned order is of 31.08.2022. The Appeal has been field on 39.09.2022 which is within limitation. Hence admitted for hearing.
Learned counsel has opposed the impugned order on merits on various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his right to agitate against the order. Learned counsel for respondent has submitted that the Act is a beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appellant from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		The learned counsel for appellant presses his I.A.
various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his right to agitate against the order. Learned counsel for respondent has submitted that the Act is a beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appellant from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		Heard both the sides and perused the record.
beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appendix from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal can be entertained for hearing. After having perused the records in the light of rival arguments, I am of the view that the interest of justice, will be served after the appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent. In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		various grounds. The argument of respondent side is that the merits of the impugned order will be considered when the appeal is finally heard on merits. According to the learned counsel for the appellant, the impugned amount is huge and appellant is not in a position to deposit it. He further submits that simply because the appellant is not in a position to deposit the amount as required for his appeal being heard, it will be against the interest of justice to deprive him of his
of the view that the interest of justice. Will be served after appeal appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent . In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance. Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		beneficial legislation and there is no ground to exempt the appendix from making the pre deposit as provided by statute before this appeal
Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any, within 02 weeks thereafter		of the view that the interest of justice. Will be served after appeal appellant is required to deposit 40% of the amount under appeal within 30 days from today in the form of Demand Draft in favour of Respondent . In case of compliance of this condition, there will be stay on recovery of amount under Appeal. Attachment if any, shall also stand in abeyance.
		Respondent to file Counter within 04 weeks from today, after serving a copy to the learned counsel of the Appellant. Rejoinder if any,
PRESIDING OFFICER		PRESIDING-OFFICER	