Case No. CGIT/LC/RC/02/2018

Satish Kumar Pandey V/S Archaeological Survey of India

28.06.2024	Matter taken up. None present for Management. Workman learned Counsel Ms. Neelam Goyal present. Today is fixed for hearing on application of recall of order dated 26.11.2021 filed by management. None to press this application. This application can be dismissed only on the ground that management is not present to press it since many dates but in the larger interest of justice, I have heard the oral submissions/ objection of learned Counsel for workman on this application and have gone through the record. Vide order dated 26.11.2021 the reference was directed to be proceeded against management due to their absence inspite of sufficient service of notices against them and date 04.03.2022 was fixed for ex-parte hearing. Management filed this recall application on 23.02.2022 copy of which was served to workman on 04.03.2022 itself. Since then, none appeared for management to press application till today. Learned Counsel for workman submits that the ground mentioned in the application that there was a ceremony in the office of the management were everyone including the Counsel was busy, hence none could appear on behalf of management on the date fixed, is not a ground sufficient for absence of management. No doubt the conduct of management by absenting themselves on dates fixed for hearing
