RPFC-, Gurgaon

Respondent

ORDER DATED:- 03.03.2022

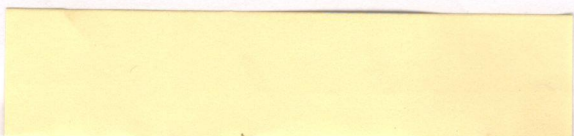

Present:- Sh. S.K Khanna, Ld. Counsel for the Appellant.
Shri B.B Pradhan, Ld. Counsel for the Respondent.

The matter came up today for consideration of an application filed by the appellant making a specific prayer in the nature of a direction to the respondent to revoke the order of attachment of the bank account of the appellant. Heard the Ld. Counsel for the appellant and the Ld. Counsel for the respondent as well. Perusal of the record shows that by order dated 04.02.2022 this tribunal had directed the appellant to deposit 30% of the assessed amount within 6 weeks from the date of the order towards compliance of the provisions of section 70 of the Act. In the order dated 04.02.2022 there was no specific direction for continuance of the stay granted earlier till compliance of the direction, date line for which has been fixed to 24th March 2022. Taking advantage of the same the respondent authority attached the bank account of the appellant. When this fact brought to the notice of the tribunal by order dated 14.02.2022 the interim order of stay granted earlier by order dated 07.01.2022 was directed to continue till 24.03.2022.

Now the appellant has brought to the notice that the respondent has freezed the bank account and not defreezing the same in absence of a specific order of the Tribunal, to that effect. The Id. Counsel Mr. Pradhan fairly conceded that there being no order for defreezing the account the respondent authority have not taken any action otherwise.

Considering the situation and to obviate the difficulty faced by the appellant it is hereby directed that the respondent authority shall defreeze the bank account of the appellant forthwith if the same has not been done inconnection with the matter of this appeal. This direction shall be carried out on or before 07.03.2022. Call the matter on the date already fixed.
