The matter stands posted today for filing written statement

Mr. L.D'souza, learned counsel for the applicant is present

Second party found absent on call.

The learned counsel for applicant/management submitted that the original workman/second party is dead and his legal heirs are to be brought on record. He also submitted that the management for the death by workman has decided to fully and finally settle his legal dues. A calculation was worked out, but latter on the same was found to be incomplete. Hence some more time for filing of the calculation sheet for the deceased workman be allow.

Record reveals that the legal heirs of the deceased workman though has been brought on record, she is not attending the court since long.

The office is directed to issue fresh notice to the legal heirs of deceased workman and management is directed to file complete calculation the dues payable to the deceased workman on the next date of hearing positively.

Matter adjourned

Fix on 12/10/2022 for filing calculation sheet and appearance of the legal heir of the deceased workman upon notice.
