ORDER

(Delivered on 10-03-2026)

Case called out today. Both parties are absent. Mr. Surana Advocate has moved an application for adjournment on behalf of the learned counsel for the respondent. There is no power of the learned counsel Mr. Surana on behalf of the respondent. He has stated before the court that, the learned counsel for the respondent has given him authority to move this application before the court but Mr. Surana is unable to explain under which law, learned counsel for the respondent has authorized him to move an application for adjournment. Therefore, this application is not in accordance with law and not moved by an empowered advocate. Therefore, this adjournment application is hereby rejected.

From perusal of record, it is apparent that, both parties are not responding and attending the court since 18.03.2024 long back. It appears that, both parties are not interested to contest the case. Therefore, this appeal is hereby dismissed in default of both parties. No order as to costs. The proceeding is closed.
